

LOCAL MISCELLANY.

STRICKING A WOMAN AND SHOOTING A MAN. FORCING HIS WAY INTO A LODGING HOUSE—CAUSING A DISTURBANCE—FOLLOWED BY A BOY.

Over A. S. Frischkorn's beer shop, at No. 45 Chrystie-st., are a number of rooms which he has recently let out. Each opened at about last evening's closing prices. Northwestern, however, closed from 8 1/2 to 8 3/4, and later sold at 9 1/4, or 1/4 higher than yesterday's last figure, while St. Paul's first price, 7 1/4, was its low...

At Bayard's the boy met policeman Sullivan, who promptly laid the car and arrested the man. As the officer was taking his prisoner toward the Police Station, young Mullin followed close behind, shouting the refrain, "I'm going to see a lawyer."

SELLING THE MOROSINI FURNITURE.

The auction rooms of James P. Silo, at No. 57 Cedar-st., were thronged yesterday with house keepers and buyers at the sale of the furniture of Mr. Morosini's home. The bidding was not spirited and the things sold cheaply. Many of Mr. Morosini's household goods, it is said, were purchased by him at second hand. Many nicely dressed women were in the room and the man shook his fist at him from the rear platform of the car.

A PICCOLO PLAYED AMONG THE BOARDS.

A dramatic colored boy, almost a dwarf, called a crowd in New York yesterday afternoon by his skillful playing on the stocks. Business at the Stock Exchange was practically at a standstill, but it was stopped completely when some of the young brokers, sitting at the front of the floor, were instantly started and in the center the little musician played with all his might. The brokers looked on with all his might. The music, the young boy played in the center. He was observed to turn pale at the end of the disorder, but with pure courage he pulled up his coat sleeves and began to play again. Many known that any funds were imposed by him. When the colored boy reached the street he called out of his pockets with one hand and his pistol in the other in the other hand. The boy's many good reasons for presenting his first appearance on the floor of the New York Stock Exchange.

The funeral of Isaac Newton took place at No. 28 West Twenty-third street, yesterday at 2 p. m. The service was conducted by the Rev. Dr. Johnson of New Brighton, Staten Island, and the Rev. J. T. Eber, of the Episcopal Baptist Church. There were no pall bearers and no flowers. Among the prominent persons present were: Commissioners Hildreth, Thompson, Bennett, Combs, Hamilton, H. W.
